

2019 Southern California Minorities and Philosophy (MAP) Workshop

Saturday, April 27, 2019

Dodd Hall Common Room (399)

Morning Session: Pedagogy and Diversity

10-10:30am	Light breakfast
10:30-11:15am	Kino Zhao, Ph.D. Candidate, UC Irvine Department of Logic and Philosophy of Science “Workshop for First-Gen Applicants to Philosophy Graduate Programs”
11:30am-12:15pm	Sherri Lynn Conklin, UC Santa Barbara, Co-Director, Demographics in Philosophy Project “Ethical Considerations for Philosophy Outreach Programs”
12:15-1pm	Lunch

Afternoon Session: Who We Deem Worth Reading

1-1:45pm	Saraliza Anzaldua, Ph.D. Student, UCLA “Can Philosophy be Separated from the Philosopher?”
2-2:45pm	Dr. Ellie Anderson, Visiting Assistant Professor, Pitzer College “The Marginalization of Continental Philosophy”
3-5pm	Keynote: Dr. Myisha Cherry, Assistant Professor, UC Riverside “On Conversations”